CLASS PROPHECY

2000 A. D. I had always wondered what it was like to be part of society. Now my chance had finally come! I had been invited to D-R Town for the day to visit with Mayor Skip Carr and his wife, the former Barbara Sim. As I arrived at the huge mansion on New Street, Byron Holmes, the family's butler, welcomed me. I was sitting in the receiving room when a saucy French maid, Vera Leger, appeared. She told me that the mayor's wife had decided that the only way for me to really know what her life was like was to let me spend the day with her.

I met the mayor on his way out the door. Tommy Mello, the chauffeur, was driving him to various meetings that day. Barbara and I had to use the TR4. While driving out the large circular driveway, we saw the daily deliveries being made at the house: Bill Hogan delivering for Don Vinniti's Diaper Service and Eddie Sylvia with his milk truck.

Our first stop was at Polly's Poodle Parlor, owned by Polly Jo Crawford, to check on the family's pride and joy. I'd never seen such a chic shop! We then went next door to a small dress shop where Helen Chellel waited on us. The mayor's wife was having a dress designed for a coming event so we had to quibble over skirt length for an hour with seamstress Janet Sweeney and the famous designer Nat Rendine. We decided that we had spent a pretty busy morning and that after making a stop at Kathy's Klassy Kleaners, we should have lunch. The cleaners, I later found out, was owned by the Kathies: Amaral, Blackburn, Botelho, Cassidy, Hopkins, Jones, Lister, Lopes, Redfern, Rourke, and Stanton.

After passing Robert Hall's (get it?) we finally arrived at Toste's Tea Room—Ann Marie Toste, owner. We were greeted by the doorman, Cliff Eliason, and were shown to our table by John Sojka maitre d'. Jose Carreras took our order. While waiting, we noticed many celebrities at the Tea Room. We first noticed Wedgio Souza, the well-known opera tenor, and Wayne Manning, the famous flamenco dancer. There was also the famous comedy team of Zip, Zap, and Zup, better known as Cynthia Ramspott, Susan VanAhnen, and Jean Kane. The mayor's wife wasn't too happy with her dinner and went right to the cooks, Gerry Ferris and Rachel Bradley, with her complaint. We soon had the distinguished manager, David McGinn, helping us and we were on our way.

We hadn't been driving more than 2 minutes when CRASH! We had run into a large bus carrying the Seekonk* Singers. We found out that all of the singers were students we had known many years ago. They were Susan Allaire, Tony Alves, Beverly Sears, Charlotte Leprade, Gerald Arruda, Linda Roderiques, Nancy Francis, Barry Motta, Robert Borges, Cheryl Moreira, Alfred Penacho, Ginny Ferriera, Tommy Sorafine, Lillian McMahon, Sylvia Reale, Rosalyn Rebello, Millie George, Phil Grima, Dave Tucker, Pete Barchi, and Elaine Poliquin. Even though the accident only caused a few dents, it attracted a lot of attention. Doctor Jody Saunders and her assistant, Fran Kane, arrived in an ambulance driven by Edward Riley. The local newspaper had their trusty news reporter, Dan Martin, there covering the excitement. Just in case there might be a fire, Fire Chief Dickie Faria was there with his Little Red Firehouse Firegirls including Donna Ashcroft, Denise Dunn, Lillian Lachance, Linda Lawrence, Carol Berwick, Chris Hall, Sharon Malaguti, Theresa Goudreau, and Kaija Karpinnen.

Bob Araujo, the funeral director, was there also, just in case there was any business for him. We soon had the whole incident straightened out with the policemen, John Cassidy and Louis Trond, and we started off again.

Our next stop was the airport to pick up the children who had been in Europe visiting their grandparents. The children and their governess, Chris Horton, were waiting when we got there. While there we heard the familiar voice of Rosemary Duarte, the flight announcer, and saw photographer Jane Campbell taking pictures of movie goddess Karen Vatcher. We left the children off at Wendy's Windy Acres Equestrian Academy run by Wendy Wolfe with Lynne Condry, Helene Hass, and Carol Holmes as instructors, on our way to the hairdresser. We were soon going through the doors of Swindells' Style Shop—Jeff Swindells head hairdresser. Jeff was assisted by Carol Dias and manicurist Mary Lou DeSilva.

We then went back to the house to prepare for the ball that evening. While going up the drive, we saw Joan Dlugoleski, Lynn Deprizio, Janet Goff, Lorine DeMoranville and Eddie Brooks painting the house under the supervision of Gordon Yaghjian. We also saw the plumber, Letty Jo Cellemme, and the electrician, Greg Fisk, who were just leaving.

After a few hours of readying, we were off to the ball. When we arrived, the orchestra, consisting of Herbert Perry, Rodney Perry, Linda Gracia, Deborah Clayton, Dan Rose, David Lau, Dave Varley, Sharon Nowell, Carolyn Leach, and Betty Almeida, had already begun playing. We also noticed Betsy Shaw trying to get into the orchestra and Carl Baer with his famous "clicking pen". Many famous people and groups were there. There were Roy Fox, Wally Davis, and Wally Allen, members of the "World Travelers'" basketball team. The Duke and Duchess of Direhoberkonkia, Steve Hopkins and Ellen Day, were there. Robert Hartley, Carol Littlefield, Donna Tschirch, Grant Truesdale, and Chuck Viall, all members of the Russian Embassy, also attended. There were Freda Carpenter, new owner of a leading chain of hardware stores, Norma Trowbridge of Brooklyn Bridge Sales, Inc. and Linda Kanarian, empress of the Canary Islands.

Greg Chew of the Charleston Chew Company, Paul Pearl of South Seas Oyster Beds, Inc., and Carol Roman of Roman Pizza were in frequent arguments over their products. Valerie Marshall, sheriff at D-R Town finally had to quiet them down. Other celebrities who attended were Ginny Trott, owner of a well-known race track, Barbara Schott, manager of "Dress Shop for Tall Girls," and Donna Eagleson of Eagle Feathered Company. Karin Rose announced her plans for the next New Year's Day parade to everyone.

Before we realized it, the evening was over and it was time to leave. "Oh, what a wonderful day!" remarked the mayor's wife. "I've seen so many old friends from D-R. I only wish I could have seen them all. I hope they're all doing as well as the people I did see."

We, the class of 1966, being of sound mind and body, do hereby ordain this our last will and testament.

CHARLES DAY—Director

"In battle or business, whatever the game,
In law or in love, it is ever the same;
In the struggle for power, or the scramble for pelf,
Let this be your motto,—Rely on yourself!
For, whether the prize be a ribbon or throne,
The victor is he who can go it alone!"

JOSEPH C. HARRINGTON, Principal
RICHARD L. DIAS, Assistant
FRANCIS R. VITALE, Guidance

June, 1966

To the Class of 1966:

As a member of the D-R Class of 1966 you have had the opportunity of receiving an above average high school education. The primary source of this opportunity was the teaching staff. Other important factors were the extent of the curriculum offerings, the facilities both building and grounds, and the extra-curricular program. Many of you recognized these opportunities in 1962 and began taking advantage of them. This group of students is ready for and headed toward a bright future.

Some of you attended school but did not accept the challenge. You will realize your loss in the very near future and we hope you will begin to do something about it.

All of you received our best efforts. We wish you well.

Sincerely,

Joseph C. Harrington
